

Continental Divide

Perfect for an international gathering, this option brings together many wines from around the world. Imagine the fun your group will have in this blind tasting as they compare and contrast wines from different continents. Not only will participants attempt to identify the wines presented, they'll rate each one, allowing the group to select winners, which is sure to evoke national pride!