

Highlands & Islands

Conclude your sales meeting with the ultimate nightcap ~ one they'll talk about for years!

Let TeamTasting offer your guests a sampling of the finest single malt Scotch whiskies, some of them not commercially available in the USA. Guests will leave with new appreciation for the "splendor of Scotland." Similar events can feature other spirits such as Tequila, Bourbon, or Armagnac. A novel way to begin or end an Achievement Club award dinner and to toast the hard work of your top employees.
